

I use the XM Satellite traffic and weather channels during my travels to inform me of any traffic and weather situations. Being a traveler, I benefit from these local info stations by being able to punch them in on the dial instead of the long drawn out process of scanning the unfamiliar radio dial for traffic information which in turn takes my main focus off the road and provides for an unsafe situation. Please reconsider HR4026, a lot is at stake.